A JR. COLLEGE WILL PROVIDE

- Two Years Of Academic Education With Credits Transferable To Any Four Year College

The State law provides that, "the academic courses given and the instruction therein shall --- be of the same standard as --- taught in the first two years of any other state institution of higher education, and credit therefore shall be accepted by such other institutions."

- Vocational And Technical Training For Students And Adults Not Interested In Graduate Study

One of the most desirable features of a Community College is that both vocational and technical courses can be offered.

- An Adult Educational Program

Courses not taken for college credit may be entered by anyone over age of 16.

- An Opportunity For More Of Our High School Graduates To Obtain Higher Education While Living At Home

A JR. COLLEGE WILL COST

FOR 1000 STUDENTS

Based on 1962 Boise Junior College Survey $450,000

8-MILL TAX LEVY	$368,000
STATE LIQUOR RECEIPTS	60,000
STATE VOCATIONAL EDUCATION FUNDS	63,000
STUDENT TUITION	75,000

TOTAL RECEIPTS	$566,000
Excess Available Revenue	$116,000

- LOW COST FOR STUDENTS:

Living within the District the tuition by law can be no less than $50.00 or more than $75.00 per year. For the student living outside the District the tuition can be the actual cost of the student's education.

- LOW COST FOR PROPERTY OWNERS:

The following average costs could be anticipated if the maximum 8 mill levy were in force. For a Twin Falls tract irrigated farm with average improvements the cost would be from 50c to 75c per acre per year. The cost for the city home with a market value of $10,000.00 could be no more than $9.98 per year, a $15,000.00 home would cost no more than $14.95. (The survey shows that this college could be operated for approximately 70 per cent of the above costs.)

Voters Have 7 Contests In Gooding

GOODING, Oct. 31 — Seven contests highlight the Lincoln county ballot in Tuesday's general election with the race for sheriff creating considerable interest.

Incumbent Verne Rowe, Republican, is opposed by Dan Gooding, running on the Democratic ticket. Rowe served as Gooding city police officer and was deputy sheriff for four and one-half years prior to his appointment as sheriff in August, 1963, to fill the unexpired term of Keith Anderson.

Correll, a resident of Gooding since 1935, has served as president of the Idaho high school rodeo association for four terms and has been a patrolman for the Gooding police department.

Don Frederickson, state senator and Vernon Ravenscroft, state representative, both seek reelection on the Democratic ticket.

They are opposed by Melvin Gibson, Wendell, Republican candidate for the representative post, and Robert Erkins, Wendell, who seeks the Senate seat for the Republicans.

Candidates for the county commissioners' posts include Jerry Renfrow, who has served for the past 22 years in the post. He is a retired farmer and has served on the Wendell school board and the city council.

His opponent on the Democratic side is Keith Davis. Davis has owned a machine shop in Wendell since 1947, and is a past president and member of the Wendell Chamber of Commerce.

Ben F. Glanier, incumbent for the Democrats, seeks reelection for commissioner of the five-district against new comer Ray Harding, Republican.

Glanier, who has served two terms for a total of six years as commissioner, is a native of Idaho, and has had his own farm east of Gooding for 30 years. He is a past member of the Gooding Club and has excelled in the rodeo. He also serves as chairman of the Gooding county fair and rodeo board.

Harding, who seeks election for the first time, farms north of Gooding, and has served 10 1/2 years in the Baptist church. Gooding Grange, Farm Bureau and Toastmasters club. He has also served as a director for the Farm Bureau and has served as a member of the board for the Baptist church. Harding is running on the Republican ticket.

In the contest for the county treasurer position, which was held by Mrs. Catherine Stone Roberts, who does not seek reelection, Republican Mrs. John Robertson is opposed by Mrs. Robert (Iris) Harkins. Mrs. Robertson is active in several community clubs and is a 4-H leader. She is presently serving as deputy treasurer under Mrs. Roberts.

Mrs. Harkins has had 13 years experience in accounting and office work, including secretarial work at the Tuberculosis hospital, office work at the First Security bank, and for Carico and Co., accountants. She has resided in Gooding most of her life, and is a Democratic candidate.

The final contest on the ballot is for the post of probate judge. C. E. Spencer, who was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Judge James P. Gossel, is running on the Republican ticket.

Spencer served as justice of the peace in Wendell for two years, is a retired lieutenant of detectives of the Los Angeles police department and has had special education in criminology at the University of California, criminal law at Hill's Law school, and criminal evidence at the University of Southern California.

Male-Glanier, Hagerman, seeks election as probate judge on the Democratic side. Glanier, who is a lifelong resident of Hagerman, has five sons and one daughter. Two of his sons are in the service.

Andrew F. James is in opposition as Democratic candidate for prosecuting attorney.

Republicans in opposition for their posts include New Treasurer for assessor and Dr. B. A. Rodmer for coroner.

Registration Not Required For Junior College Ballot

Twin Falls county school electors who are otherwise eligible to vote on the junior college or the parent or legal guardian of a child under 21 years of age living at home or in school.

This was emphasized by Egon Kroll, chairman of the city commissioners, and Robert W. Stephan, Twin Falls attorney, who met the other qualifications as stated herein may vote on the question.

In remarking on the proposal, Stephan said, "It (the junior college) will be a wonderful thing for this community in every respect."

Kroll, in a recent letter to the Times-News Public Forum, wrote, "There is a real need in our area for educational opportunities beyond the 12th grade of

Civic Symphony Opens 6th Season in T.F. on Nov. 24

The Twin Falls Civic Symphony, orchestra, and the director, Del Slaughter, will open its sixth season with a concert at 8 p.m. Nov. 24 in the Oyster Junior high school auditorium.

This group has been in rehearsal since Sept. 1, as a great many hours of work go into the preparation of an interesting and varied program of classical music. The entire undertaking is purely a labor-of-love, all of the musicians donate their time and their talent to this cultural activity, Slaughter notes.

Magie Valley is well represented among the members, with players coming from Eiler, Buhi, Kimberly, Hansen, Twin Falls, and Burley. There are six people coming over each week from the latter community, and they are among the most talented in attendance, according to Mrs. R. A. Butcher, business manager. While this is primarily an adult organization, several well-qualified high school students also participate.

There are two husband and wife teams among the personnel — Mrs. Del Slaughter, wife of the conductor, is concertmaster, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Christopher, who play bassoon and violin respectively.

A former soloist, cellist David Whitmer, string-instructor at the University of Idaho, said he had never seen an orchestra survive in a town of this size without having a college from which to attract talent. Mrs. Butcher points out.

Selections presented by the orchestra will include "Suite for Orchestra" (from "The Water Music") by Handel; "Lyrical Suite" by Edward Elgar; "Ballad Music" from "Faust" by Gounod; "Children's Dance" (from "Mazurka") by Chopin; "Dance Suite" from "The Tchaikovsky" by Igor Stravinsky; "Chorale from Church Cantata No. 147" (Jesu, Born of Joy Abiding) by Johann Sebastian Bach; and "Intermission" from "Cavalcade" by Grainger.

Soloist for this concert will be Mrs. Carlan W. (Cory) Silha, violinist, playing "Violin Concerto in G Minor" Opus 35, by Max Bruch. Mrs. Silha is working on her master's degree in music at the University of Idaho. She is 21 years of age, married, and has one son. She is a student of Lethy Diner, professor of music at the university.

Patrons — tickets — or sustaining memberships, are now on. Persons previously holding will be given an opportunity to renew them. Anyone interested in becoming a patron may call 4080.

General admission tickets are available at the door the night of the concert.

Swisher Hits "Proven" Gem Leadership

"The Idaho tax structure has become steadily worse, education needs and costs have necessarily increased with the student population and the era demands; Idaho has not kept pace," Jack Swisher, Democratic candidate for state representative of Twin Falls county, stated Saturday.

"We have heard a lot recently about proven leaders in the Idaho legislature. What have they proven? Where have they led us?"

"Small businesses and small farmers are finding it more and more difficult to start or to continue in Idaho," Swisher stated. He also stated, "Wage earners are not getting the representation for which they are paying so dearly. Local Republicans themselves are admitting these problems exist. Yet they have not used the position they had to alleviate them. Voters are asked to return these so-called proven leaders and their carbon copies to the legislature. I hope voters review the lack of accomplishments over the last decade or two and evaluate the leadership."

"I do not claim that freshmen representatives and senators will be launched into leadership,"

He stated, "but I do guarantee that we Democrats will be instrumental in getting leaders in the true sense of the word."

"What has Twin Falls county received for having state senators in leadership positions? What has this state accomplished?"

Governor Smylie and associates have made the phrase "proven leadership" used to have the cognition of action. It now seems received for having state senators in leadership positions? What has this state accomplished?

Progress Is Reported on Road Work

SHOSHONE, Oct. 31—Progress of the interstate highway in this district and other road work currently under construction were reported upon by Howard Johnson at the North Side Community meeting here Thursday night.

Johnson, assistant state highway engineer for the district, said the project for the section between Jerome and Eden on highway 20 to state highway 60 has been let to Peter Kiewit and will cost $2,267,000.

Some minor striping has been done and the contractors plan to continue with this work.

The spoke also related progress of other projects now under way in the district.

Blaine-Balsdon, state highway engineer, Shoshone office, Friday stated there are now under contract 24 miles of interstate highway in the district. This includes five contracts, three grading and two structure. He said they hope to let a contract for year on the Valley school road to Greenwood. Right-of-way negotiations are being completed.

Ralph Smith, Rupert, conducted the North Side Community meeting. Other community representatives included: Shoshone, Gooding, Wendell and Halley.

Jim Benham for Sheriff

- Experienced
- Well Qualified
- 23 Years Law Enforcement

Fair—Prompt—Efficient and Impartial Law Enforcement

JIM SAYS THIS ABOUT THE SHERIFF'S JOB

"Now this sheriff's job is a curious one. It's a housewife's work, it's never done. Calls come by night, and come by day. They may be near, or miles away.

"Hurry right out," says the voice of the caller, "You're badly needed in Possum Holler. There's on the rampage, it's a 'K'."

"Been lookin' for Ma Ince half-past one."

So we jump in our silver and hit the trail And drive like a steamroller carryin' mail. Our only hope and all we can figure, Is to be on hand 'fore Ma pulls the trigger. We finally arrive amid the confusion, We learn the affair was simple confusion, We with the gun was just hunting squirrels, Ma'd gone to school with the two oldest girls.

Today we hunt evidence and dig up the facts, Tomorrow we struggle with the delinquent tax. Next day we're hunting a mottled faced cow, Then stay up all night at some nice family row. Next day we have court and the lawyer's rave, The defendant sits there in need of a shave. "Where were you?" they bellow, "on the first of November!" The defendant replies, "I don't remember."

They argue around 'til half past three, Then the jury goes out and falls to agree. The judge sends them back 'til their duty is done, But eight hours later, they are 11 to 1. Now that's just a sample of what we do, An endless variety, old and new. It may be a prowler, a burglar, a drunk, He may steal your billfold, your watch, or your trunk.

We set out to catch him and do our best, We catch a percentage, and lose the rest. We can't catch them all, for some leave no clue, They don't leave their cards like you and I do. Sometimes they plead guilty 'cause they're all sold, "I was drunk, I was dizzy, I was blind, I was told. They blame the depression, the new deal, the tariff, And a few put the blame on the poor old sheriff.

Sometimes there's tinworks, and an officer gets shot, While doing his duty, he's put on the spot! Just lately a sheriff I knew was killed By a couple of punks, with some girls to be thrilled. You can't get excited when out on a call, 'Cause you might hear their thing and suddenly do it all. You mustn't get nervous or lose your head, For if someone gets shot, he's a long time dead.

So it's quite a game, if you stay right in, You'll get a pat on the back and a look on the chin. But I like it all, and I'm sheddin' no tears, I'd like being your sheriff another four years.

Your Vote Will Be Appreciated!

California Can't Take A Drop of Idaho Water without Idaho's permission

When anyone — and we mean anyone — seeks to appropriate and use Idaho water, they must comply with Idaho law. Private individuals, irrigation districts, corporations and the federal Bureau of Reclamation all comply. Under existing Idaho law neither California, nor any of its cities or citizens, can take water from the Snake River to that state.

The Idaho Supreme Court ruled in the case of Waldbridge versus Robinson 122 Idaho 2361 that "there is no authority for the diversion and appropriation of waters of this state for application to a beneficial use in another state" and that the State of Idaho has not granted the right to any other state.

All scare propaganda to the contrary, the proposed Constitutional Amendment (S.J.R. 1) is unnecessary, the proposed protection, and would result in a huge, new state bureaucracy. As against the right of Congress to control the water of navigable streams, the proposed water agency would be completely useless.

It is a hobgoblin that this sweeping and revolutionary change in our water law is needed, or even effective, for preventing out-of-state diversions. The amendment would change the fundamental basis of Idaho water rights, hinder further private land and water development, and result in years of interminable litigation. Leading irrigation districts, individual irrigators and water attorneys are deeply concerned with the threat of such a far-reaching change and they are opposed to it.

Don't succumb, don't roll over and play dead to the California hobgoblin.

T.F. County Legislative Candidates Discuss Stands on Vital Issues

WILLIAM ROBERTS
... 44, is a graduate of Buhl high school and has spent 24 years in the farm equipment business. He was co-chairman in 1961, of the citizens committee for a new elementary school and served nine years on the school board. He is a past director of the Twin Falls Chamber and is presently a director of the Salmon River Canal company. He has been educated in the Farm Bureau and Grange, and in the Community church. He is a member of the governor's water study committee. He is a Republican candidate for reelection to state representative.

Sales Tax: To be acceptable the sales tax proposal, or even a tax revision, must carry with it corresponding reductions in property and personal taxes. It must be a program which will result in a more equal distribution of the tax load.

Reapportionment: One-based on area and the other on population as we have it now, I believe is proper. However, the federal supreme court has ordered reapportionment of both houses based on population. We are forced to comply. In reapportionment program, we must still endeavor to assure the proper voice in government to all segments of our population. A reapportionment plan that contributes a large measure of support to our state economy is still entitled to a strong voice. We must still try to equalize the voice of the minority and the majority so that neither one is subject to the will of the other, regardless.

Parl-mutual: I do not believe we should do any changing of the parl-mutual law at this time. It is a good law.

Schools: There is no question but that we need to maintain the steady and solid growth of our education program and to ensure the growth stays on solid ground. It is important that we stay within the bounds of what our economy can afford. I believe we must work toward the goal set up by the state board of education but I don't believe we can make a $7 million dollar step at once.

Christian college: I believe this situation should be further observed by the state land board before any action is taken. If the college can't function to good capacity and the property is allowed to deteriorate then the lease should be canceled and the buildings put to better use.

Home rule: The cities should have home rule. In voting on any bonds which are an obligation of the taxpayers the two-thirds vote is necessary. Revenue bonds which are not a general obligation of the state should be issued by the cities as well as by an agency or commission.

3 Accidents Probed by City Police

Twin Falls police investigated three accidents in the city Thursday and Friday, with no injuries reported.

Frank H. Feldman, 47, 166 Polk street, was driving a 1961 Comet owned by Thelma Mott company at 11:35 a.m. Friday when the vehicle ran out of gas on Klondike road.

The vehicle stopped in traffic and was struck from the rear by a 1949 Dodge driven by Jack L. Donner, 43, 1115 Lake Boulevard north. Donner told the investigating officer that he was unable to stop his vehicle because of the slick and wet streets.

Robert E. Jarvis, 44, 410 Elm street, was driving a 1955 Oldsmobile north on Fourth avenue east about 8:30 a.m. Friday when his vehicle collided with a 1957 Buick being driven on Second street east by Pamela A. Tipton, 17, 531 Buchanan street.

Gary D. Turner, 25, route 1, was attempting to drive his 1953 Dodge from a parking space at 8 a.m. Thursday. He was backing out of the alley between Adams street and Washington street north, when his car struck the front of a 1953 Ford owned by W. J. White, 572 Heyburn avenue west, which was backed behind the Turner vehicle.

No citations were issued in any of the three accidents.

Shoshone Plans Court of Honor

SHOSHONE, Oct. 31—A court of honor will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the LDS church for Shoshone Indians. The court will be held prior to the program. Featured speaker will be Michael Mammone, scout commissioner.

E. J. Shaw will present the awards to the Scouts. Each person attending should take an empty can or bottle, the size depending upon how much punch they can drink. Parents and friends of the Scouts are encouraged to attend.

He is a member of the governor's water study committee. He is a Republican candidate for reelection to state representative.

Sales Tax: I believe that if Idaho is to continue to move forward, grow, build, and maintain an economic climate that will attract industry to our state and that our young people, after being educated in our schools, may secure productive employment within our borders, the legislature will need to effect major tax revision and reform. By this, I mean a re-evaluation of assessment ratios between not only classes of property but between counties; reduction of levies in many instances; abolishment of negatively taxed industries and the initiation of a sales tax as a major source of revenue at the state level. Now I don't like a tax any better than anyone else but I must be realistic. I have seen the present first hand through three sessions of the legislature, and I would do something less than

Schools: I have five children. Three of them in school. I want the best education that I and my country can give them. We as a nation cannot afford second class education. The question of whether or not we should spend $7 million dollar increase for education would depend on many things. First, of course, would be the availability of funds. If a sales tax is not approved, then the money would be out of the question. Secondly, I would need to study the budget requests of the various educational institutions to satisfy myself that any increase would be spent on education.

Christian college: I believe that the recent decision of the land board to cancel the lease of the Magic Valley Christian college was premature and ill advised. Any institution of higher learning is growing pains. The state should be very tolerant with it, and give all the assistance possible to this institution. I would like to commend the land board for not canceling the lease and reversing the opinion.

Home rule: This is a broad question, but in the main I believe that whenever government is brought closer to the people, both benefit.

Parl-mutual: The record will show that what I said and what I believe is correct. I am in opposition to the bill. As to how it worked out, I have not heard any unfavorable reports regarding administration of the law, nor have I been given any reason to believe that it will be a significant source of revenue for Idaho's general fund.

Schools: Substantial increases in support for the local school district from the state level can only be accomplished through comprehensive revision and reform of our tax structure, plus the initiation of a new major tax. I favor increases in state

Reapportionment: I am very apprehensive about reapportionment. The state legislature, Great care must be taken so that the majority is satisfied without infringing upon the rights of the minority. I have read the report of the legislative committee on this matter. The committee has suggested several possible solutions. Each one should be given consideration and study.

Sales tax: All forms of taxation are unpopular, and a sales tax seems to be the most unpopular one of all. However, to meet the increased demands and obligations of the state, new sources of revenue must be found. Therefore, if elected, I will vote for a sales tax, provided that the majority is satisfied without infringing upon the rights of the minority. I have read the report of the legislative committee on this matter. The committee has suggested several possible solutions. Each one should be given consideration and study.

Schools: I have five children. Three of them in school. I want the best education that I and my country can give them. We as a nation cannot afford second class education. The question of whether or not we should spend $7 million dollar increase for education would depend on many things. First, of course, would be the availability of funds. If a sales tax is not approved, then the money would be out of the question. Secondly, I would need to study the budget requests of the various educational institutions to satisfy myself that any increase would be spent on education.

Christian college: I believe that the recent decision of the land board to cancel the lease of the Magic Valley Christian college was premature and ill advised. Any institution of higher learning is growing pains. The state should be very tolerant with it, and give all the assistance possible to this institution. I would like to commend the land board for not canceling the lease and reversing the opinion.

Home rule: This is a broad question, but in the main I believe that whenever government is brought closer to the people, both benefit.

Parl-mutual: The record will show that what I said and what I believe is correct. I am in opposition to the bill. As to how it worked out, I have not heard any unfavorable reports regarding administration of the law, nor have I been given any reason to believe that it will be a significant source of revenue for Idaho's general fund.

He was a member of the drafting committee of the water program study group. He is a candidate for state representative on the Republican ticket.

Sales tax: I firmly believe that our present tax base must be broadened. We need tax revision. To encourage new industry we must give some relief to property and income taxes. A sales tax, if properly structured, will not only provide relief on the present tax base and make more money available for public schools, state institutions and our universities.

Reapportionment: I am opposed to forced reapportionment. I believe if the citizens of the state want their legislature on the same basis as the federal government, on house based on area and one based on population, that this should be their right. I do not believe any court should be able to say that our state form of government is wrong if it represents the wishes of the majority of that state.

He is a member of St. Edward's parish, T.F., the Elks club and Kiwanis club. He is president of the Idaho state cemetery board and vice president of Idaho Internet association.

Sales Tax: A sales tax seems to be the only answer left. It would put taxes on much broader base with more people participating, including our large volume of tourist trade. With a program such as this we could certainly absorb the inventory tax and have some relief on income and property taxes.

Reapportionment: Apparently the United States supreme court has handed down a ruling on this matter and it does appear reasonable to me that representation by population would be a fair law.

Parl-mutual: Yes, I believe the parl-mutual law has worked out properly. This can be proved by the enthusiasm and participation shown by the people at the fair races this year. I see no reason for this law to be repealed. It is a sport that is enjoyed by the majority of the people in our western way of life, plus the fact of keeping hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of money in Idaho instead of sending these dollars out of state to other states.

He is listed in Who's Who in the West and has been in business in Idaho for over 25 years, including the trucking, business, aviation, cattle ranching and hotels in that order.

Sales tax: I'm leaning real strong against the sales tax. I'd have to see the bill before I'd vote on it. Unless the inventory tax is repealed, the county will have to pay for it.

Reapportionment: I think we have too many counties in the state. I think we should consolidate the counties like we did the schools and that would automatically solve the reapportionment problem.

Parl-mutual: I think the parl-mutual law has worked out very nicely. I don't see any need to change it. I think it should be done by popular vote of the people. At present, I wouldn't vote for it.

ROBERT STEFANOVICH
... candidate for state representative on the Democratic ticket, is a resident of Twin Falls and has lived in Idaho for 15 years. He is a veteran of World War II, married and has five children. He has been in the construction business most of the time since the war and was formerly engaged in farming. He has worked and held offices in PTA, service clubs and the Boy Scout program. He is a member of the Twin Falls church of the Brethren and has served on the board of commissions for 10 years.

Sales tax: I believe that a tax revision is one of the most important problems that we face. If, through this revision, a sales tax is inevitable, and if it is proposed right, and if it is one that will bring in more revenue for the state, I wouldn't vote for it at all.

Reapportionment: I will go along with the supreme court's decision. I do believe that the people should be equally represented.

Parl-mutual: I have not followed parl-mutual racing very closely, but I do look at it as a great competitive sport in breeding and racing. The parl-mutual law makes this "worldwide" sport possible here in Idaho. This will bring in more revenue for our state and I believe there is room for a broader share for the state in the future.

Schools: I believe this is not out of line for our schools. They are far behind in the nation that we really need a boost to upgrade our educational program. This cannot be done without money. I believe that with good leadership in the legislature and with the solution of our tax revision problem, the state would be able to make the decisions for themselves.

Christian college: As long as the state land board is satisfied with the present agreement, I do not believe it should be broken. I do believe that every effort should be made to utilize the building to their capacity. I love this is for the best interest of everyone and the Christian college should have every opportunity to build a good college in Albion.

Representatives of

Twin Falls Minister Backs Book

It is my opinion that the book "None Dare Call It Treason" is unusually accurate and well documented. The words cited are easily available and many from the U.S. government said the Rev. Joseph R. Wood, Tyler Street Baptist church, Twin Falls.

He replied to an article in the final edition of Wednesday's Times-News in which Erwin Schwiebert, Caldwell, Idaho Methodist conference lay leader, said the book contained "distortions, half-truths and errors."

The Rev. Wood said, "chapter seven, to which he (Schwiebert) referred regarding the National Council of Churches, is supported by my investigations over the past 16 years."

He said, "Mr. Schwiebert and others who attack the above book should read, 'The Country That Saved Israel,' in the current issue of Readers Digest. They would realize that it was information like that available in 'None Dare Call It Treason' which alerted the citizens of Brazil and saved their country from communist take-over."

The local minister said that the book warns Americans of the efforts of communists in this country and government. He said, "This fact is underscored in a recent issue of the communist newspaper, 'The Worker,' which was headlined: '90 Cruel Days: How the People Can Defeat Goldwater.' It told of a meeting of over 100 communist leaders to plan the strategy to be used in the 1964 election campaign. In the Aug. 2 issue of the same, Matt Urege, the next three months are not just a 90 day period of time... it is a political crossroads... it is a moment when the tide can turn, and can explode into mass political movements and struggles... Our nation can take a path that will lead it to swing in either direction (to wards communism or anti-communism)," the minister said.

IDAHO NEEDS THIS MAN IN CONGRESS!

IDAHO CAN'T STAND RALPH HARDING FOR TWO MORE YEARS! HE COSTS TOO MUCH!

- HARDING VOTED HIMSELF $33,000.00 A YEAR WHILE THE AVERAGE IDAHOAN EARNED LESS THAN $5,000 PER YEAR... $2,500 LESS THAN HARDING'S SELF-BESTOWED "RAISE"!
- HARDING COST AMERICA AND YOU $43,000,000.00 BY VOTING TO SELL AMERICAN WHEAT TO COMMUNIST RUSSIA AT A GIVE-AWAY PRICE. THE BILL PASSED BY ONE VOTE... HARDING'S VOTE!

CAN IDAHO AFFORD RALPH HARDING FOR TWO MORE YEARS?

RALPH HARDING HAS FAILED TO KEEP HIS PROMISES OR PRODUCE RESULTS!

- When Ralph Harding conducted his campaign of personal vilification against Hamer-Budge in 1960, he promised to secure the Burns Creek Project or quit.
- He hasn't secured Burns Creek and he won't quit.

IDAHO NEEDS YOUR HELP TO BRING HARDING BACK TO IDAHO!

NATIONAL LEADERS RECOGNIZE HANSEN

National leaders have recognized George Hansen as an unusual young man with a level head and a promise of sound leadership ability. He has received their helpful guidance and will put it to good use as your effective Congressman.

GEORGE HANSEN

is an unusually able and energetic young man who has waged a personal people-to-people campaign unique in all of Idaho's history. Virtually single handed and with only a deep desire to improve Idaho's representation in Congress behind him, he has worked without pause to bring his program to the people of Idaho's Second District. He has talked and listened, met the people and they have met him. And they liked what they saw and what they heard.

The people gave him a stunning victory in the primary.

Idaho needs this man in Congress. He hasn't wasted your time making promises and excuses like his opponent. He makes straight talk about the issues. Idaho knows where he stands and Idaho likes it. Idaho needs him. Idaho needs YOUR VOTE to send George Hansen to Congress.

MAKE IDAHO'S VOTE IN CONGRESS COUNT FOR IDAHO!

Our state can't risk another two years of failure by Ralph Harding to make good on his glib promises of four years ago. Four years of failure is a tragedy. Six years of failure would be a disaster!

GEORGE HANSEN HAS WHAT IDAHO NEEDS!

GEORGE HANSEN KNOWS HOW TO DO THE JOB!

Service to his land is more than a part-time interest with George Hansen. He believes that the way our government conducts its affairs is the most important single factor in our lives. The future of America depends on the honesty and wisdom of our national leaders. And George Hansen knows it.

He has worked all of his adult life to devote a major part of his time and energy to public service.

At his own expense he has made trips to Washington to observe and get first-hand knowledge of the workings, problems and difficulties involved in our national government. He is fully aware of the reasons why a small population state like Idaho needs strong representation instead of sheep-like surrender to Big Government.

George Hansen's record of accomplishment and public service is unique in Idaho. During his youth he worked in construction, on bridges, roads and on farms. He knows how to work hard and has done it... on the farm, in business and in public service. As the Mayor of Alameda, he led the way for his community's amalgamation with Pocatello to form what was then the largest city in Idaho. The benefits to both communities have proven to be outstanding. No one was able to bring this about until George Hansen saw the wisdom of the program, rolled up his sleeves and went to work on it. He was honored by the Jaycees Distinguished Service Award in 1961.

When the Portneuf River went on a rampage and flooded much of Pocatello, George Hansen, now a City Commissioner, didn't fly over the flood on an "inspection" tour to examine the damage from a thousand feet in the air, he put on his gum boots and helped on the levees, stacking sandbags through the night. He is an action man, not a headline hunter.

George Hansen is an active Kiwanian, a member of the 20-30 Club, his local Chamber of Commerce, Farm Bureau, American Legion, an effective United Fund worker, County Heart Fund Chairman, PTA President and a member of the Life Insurance Underwriters Association. People in his community have learned, over the years, that when they want to get a worthwhile job done they can rely on George. George Hansen does the job.

He has served two terms as City Commissioner of Pocatello and as director of the Idaho Municipal League. He is recognized, throughout Idaho, as a serious student of local government and an expert in municipal affairs. This experience has made him know how vitally important it is to give our citizens a greater voice in government at the local level and to reduce excessive domination from Washington.

This message was paid for by the interest of Idaho and America's future by the small and individual contributions of hundreds of Idaho citizens who want effective representation for Idaho and cared enough to contribute a few dollars each to pay for bringing this message to you.

CITIZENS FOR GEORGE HANSEN FOR CONGRESS
ORIN FISHER, COORDINATOR

George Hansen has a background of the kind which produces men with sound values and stable perspectives. His pioneer grandmother, Mette S. Hansen, shows above with George and his brother, Dean, in a photo taken in the 1900's, came from Denmark, taught herself to read, write and speak English. The family homesteaded in Idaho's Teton Valley where grandmother Hansen raised eight children. In 1960, she was selected Idaho's Honorary Mother of the Year. George acquired an early interest in community affairs and public service from his County Commissioner grandfather.

George Hansen's father (left), the late Dean E. Hansen of Teton, was a grain buyer, Village Board member and community leader whose counsel was sought and respected by farmers and businessmen alike. Dean Hansen taught his sons to understand real values and the necessity of perseverance in doing a job well.

Since the first pioneer homestead was established in the Teton Valley, four generations of Hansens have lived and worked in Idaho to help build a better state for future generations.

George Hansen has waged a people-to-people campaign to discuss the issues with voters throughout Idaho's Second District. As your Congressman, he'll work and vote for what YOU want.

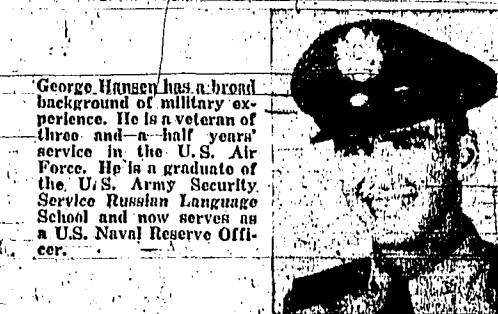

Like all other Americans, George Hansen's greatest concern for our nation's future stems from his dedication to his children and the legacy this generation will leave them.

He and his wife, Connie, a former "Mrs. Pocatello" and "Mrs. Congress" of Idaho, have five energetic, well-behaved but boisterous, challenging youngsters: Steve, 10; Jim, 9; Patty, 8; Billy, 5; and Joanne, 4.

George Hansen is an educated man through his own efforts. He earned his way through college and was graduated from Ricks College in Rexburg, Idaho, in 1954 with honors with a major in history... the best background possible for a future government leader. He continued his education program with graduate work in Education at Idaho State University and graduation from Business College in Management and Accounting. He is also a graduate of a two year Life Insurance Underwriting School.

George Hansen has a broad background of military experience. He is a veteran of three and a half years service in the U.S. Air Force. He is a graduate of the U.S. Army Security Service Russian Language School and now serves as a U.S. Naval Reserve Officer.

George has been a frequent guest speaker at senior citizen's meetings. He has made a successful effort to learn about the problems of older people and what must be done to help solve them.

The Hansen family is an active group. Mrs. Hansen is a former President of the Idaho Municipal League Ladies Auxiliary, President of the Pocatello American Legion Auxiliary, a Vice Chairman of the Blaine County Republican Central Committee and a P.T.A. President.

Traveling Spooks Gather At Local Halloween Fete

By NORMA HERZINGHA

Traveling spooks from near and far convened at the Rogerson hotel Roundup room for an evening of fun and adventure. I say adventure, because anytime a group has a costume party, it is an adventure.

Since Halloween is the night of the year for witches and goblins, the Roundup room was realistically decorated with the traditional jack-o'-lanterns, cornstalks, witches, black cats, bats, skeleton, scare-crows, ghosts and goblins. Shadows lending just the right touch to the atmospheric surroundings, were cast from the dimly lighted room.

Members and guests of the Newcomers Couples were dressed in costumes that defied description. Costumes so weird they made one just a little reluctant to enter the room, and costumes so funny you couldn't keep your eyes off them. All guests were greeted by Mrs. Eugene Donohy dressed as a ferocious-looking gray wolf.

Pumpkin and witch name tags were given to each guest by Mrs. James R. Stalnaker, Mrs. W. A. Schimmlinger and Mrs. Thomas Kleiy.

A large keg of cider, complete with spigot, was one of the attractions of the evening and was frequented often. Apples hanging from a tree attracted many of the costumed spooks.

The serving table, adjacent to the cider keg, was attractively decorated with gourds and squash, and held dishes of popcorn.

One of the diversions of the evening was crazy bridge. It was played something like this—no bidding, no dummy, no honors. Count 10 for each trick, cut for deal and player to left or dealer leads. First hand, spades are trump; second hand, no trump, whiffers add 800 to score; third hand, clubs are trump, whiffers add 800 to score; fourth hand, hearts are trump, whiffers add 800 to score; fifth hand, spades are trump, whiffers subtract 80 from score; sixth hand, clubs are trump, whiffers and losers trade scores; seventh hand, cut for trump, winners take all and add 800, and eighth hand, no trump, winners add 800.

Ninth hand, diamonds (trump) winners and losers trade scores; 10th hand, clubs are trump, player does not look at hand and plays from table; 11th hand, cut for trump, winners add 80 to score, and 12th hand, hearts are trump, winner take all, etc.

Pin and coffee were served to add to the evening festivities. Mrs. Thomas Kleiy was chairman of this event. Those making the decorations were Mrs. Kleiy, Mrs. Donald Granzow, Mrs. J. J. Robertson, Mrs. J. B. Newcomb, Mrs. James H. Spafford, Mrs. Donohy, Mrs. Bernard Barker and Mrs. Paul Wetter.

This is one of the many activities sponsored by the Newcomers club. Programs in the past have included pot-aquainted dances, progressive dinners, Thanksgiving dinner dance, Christmas caroling party and card parties.

SERVING PIE in huge wedges at the Newcomers Couples club Halloween party is Mrs. J. J. Robertson, president of the group. In addition to the pie, a cider barrel was available and other refreshments on a table colorfully decorated with the traditional Halloween accouterments, gourds and squash and a large paper BIKER cat. (Times-News photo)

United Church Women Slate Special Day

The world is profoundly different than it was 50 years ago. Church women will recognize this fact in their special day. The special day is being celebrated on Friday, Nov. 1, at the United Church of Twin Falls. The community day is being held at 2 p.m. in the Salvation Army chapel. Nursery care will be available.

We welcome the women of all churches in Magic Valley to join with us on the World Community day to participate in a special service under the theme "Nations in community," stated Mrs. Frank Marler, state president. "The number of sovereign nations in our world has more than doubled in the last half century," she said.

Today's world demands that nations must be willing to compromise in some measure their national sovereignty in the interest of mutual growth and co-operative co-existence. They must pool their efforts to attain common goals which no one nation could achieve alone," Mrs. Marler declared. She will address the church women at the World Community day to be held in the Salvation Army chapel.

The program for the observance will include a prologue of African and Brazilian folk singing led by the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Riddle.

Capit. George Driver will give the invocation and the benediction. Mrs. Robert G. Goparovich, Church of the Brethren, assisted by two readers of Scripture, Mrs. Robert Nelson, First Christian church, and Mrs. Robert Jackson, First Church of the Nazarene, will lead the congregation in meditations.

Special music will be presented by a quartet, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Riddle and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Squires, Church of the Brethren, David Wells, Baptist church, will present a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Frank McMullen.

The church women of Twin Falls are collecting school clothing for African children and also filling school bags with supplies. The offering will be presented by Mrs. B. Coebel, assisted by Mrs. Gaylord Hasselblad, Mrs. Forest Hubbard and Mrs. Henry G. Goparovich.

The offering received on World Community day this year will be used to send support to the "All Africa Conference" of churches for the establishment of a Bureau of Christian Education," Mrs. Richard Barton, local president, announced. "We all know how vitally important education is to the development of the new world. It is essential that our church involve itself in this stage in long-range planning on a continental scale."

Mrs. Barton reported that a second part of the offering will go to secure a women's staff work for African churches to train women and girls for leadership in this growing program.

Mrs. Norwood Is Hostess

VIATCHESMAN, Oct. 31 — Mrs. Virgil Norwood was hostess for the Susannah Wesley circle of the Women's Society of Christian Service at the Methodist church. Mrs. Donald Reynolds was in charge of the lesson on "The Bible and the life within."

Final plans were made for the election day dinner to be served from 5 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Legion hall by the WSCS members.

The next meeting will be Jan. 27.

BERNIECE BEAN

Berniece Bean, Krahn Disclose Wedding Plans

FAIRFIELD, Oct. 31 — An announcement has been made of the engagement of Berniece Marie Bean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Bean, Seattle, and Clinton Dallas Krahn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krahn, Fairfield.

Miss Bean is a graduate of the University of Washington, Seattle, and has recently returned from Iran where she spent four and one-half years as a mission nurse under the Presbyterian Mission board.

Krahn is engaged in farming with his father.

The announcement was made by Edward Krahn, brother-in-law of Miss Bean, at a dinner at the Community church.

A winter wedding is planned.

Members Will Cater Banquet

FAIRFIELD, Oct. 31 — The Occident Rebekah lodge voted to cater the Grain Growers banquet Nov. 18. Menu committees members are Mrs. Herbert Gormley, Mrs. Boyd Harrison, Mrs. Ed. Reedy and Mrs. C. E. Reedy.

A report was made on the breakfast served in the lodge hall for the Camas county Democratic in honor of Rep. Ralph Harding.

Following was the theme of the meeting and members were dressed in weird costumes. Seasonal songs were sung by the group. Mrs. Cecil Howard and Mrs. Arthur W. Hooper were hostesses.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 18. Officers will be nominated. Hostesses are Mrs. Violet Caldwell and Mrs. Gertrude Schmidt.

A Beauty Hint

Margaret Merrill advises that is quite simple for every woman to promote an English country-style complexion. Her hint is to use a peach and cream loveliness is to dampen a cloth with cold water from your refrigerator and press it over your face for a few minutes once or twice a day. Then, to hold the good of the complexion, a beautifying cold water-smooth-on-a-little-tropical oil of olive. This oil is rather scarce and expensive but your drug store should be able to get you a small supply.

Convention

Social Events Are Listed

Buhl, Oct. 31—Social events that will highlight the Idaho State Moose association convention and Women of the Moose convalesce to be held in Buhl on November are announced with special events placed on the agenda that will be open to the public.

An outstanding hour-long program of drills and exhibition to be presented by the various lodges and chapters throughout the state is one of the main feature attractions of the convention open for public entertainment and will be presented at 3:30 p.m. Nov. 5 at the American Legion hall.

In this event the Buhl lodge and chapter will present two drills, a women's formal drill, and a mixed drill, with both the march and music composed by Mrs. Clifford Brown. The women's formal drill will be portrayed by 24 women in pastel formal gowns. All are fashioned in a simple yet elegant design and feature fitted bodices, modishly scooped necklines, short sleeves and soft, pleated skirts. Mrs. William Zurek and Mrs. Eugene Rutherford are the leaders.

Mrs. Brown will also provide the background piano accompaniment for this portion of the program.

The mixed drill will be comprised of 30 Moose couples and will be based on a Bohemian theme. The women will wear the traditional picturesque Bohemian attire of costume, including a white ruffled blouse enhanced with black vests detailed with bright braid trim and the Bohemian cap, a white winged affair.

The men will wear dark trousers, white shirts with gay vests and ties, made to match their partner's costumes. Mrs. Floyd Dales and Brown will lead this exhibition and Mrs. Brown will furnish accompaniment music on the accordion.

Another highlight of the convention which is also open to the public, although more on the solemn nature, is a memorial drill to be presented by the host group at 8:15 p.m. Nov. 6 at the Moose home. The impressive candlelight ceremony, which will honor deceased members of lodges and chapters throughout the state, will be under the direction of Mrs. Lyle Dales, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tippett as leaders. The women will wear floor-length formals. A decorative heart-shaped centerpiece bearing the Moose emblem will provide added interest to this ritual. Gale Conner is the soloist.

Other social events that will mark the convalesce, however, which are confined to those attending the three-day meet, include a job and social hour for the Moose home, at which time the assemblage will leave the Buhl Moose home by bus to the Moose home in Buhl for dinner at 5:30 p.m. and journey to Oakesdale, Idaho, for dinner and entertainment.

The evening of Nov. 6 will be marked by a "Night in Bohemia," beginning at 9 p.m. at the Moose home. A special program of skits will be presented and other entertainment and food will be carried out in the Bohemian manner. As a climax to the events, the president's unit will be held at 9 p.m. at the American Legion hall. A grand march and waltz contest will highlight this activity.

Missionary Council Yule Projects Set

SHOSHONE, Oct. 31—Projects for Christmas were outlined at the Women's Missionary council meeting when they held their regular October meeting.

The group will send a Christmas box to 14-year-old Sharon McGraw, daughter of a missionary to Indonesia, their adopted missionary child, and will send a box to Margaret Carlow and a Japanese family with whom she is staying while attending the University of Hawaii.

Miss Carlow is a missionary to Korea, and is attending the University in Japan, and is presently in her work as president of a Bible school there.

Mrs. Carl-Kimney conducted the meeting and led devotional services. The next meeting will be held Thursday at the church.

Hansen Royal Neighbor Lodge Receives Honor

HANSEN, Oct. 31—For the third time in recent months, the Hansen Royal Neighbor Lodge has been given the honor of being "Camp of the Month," according to a letter received from the Supreme Camp headquarters.

They were given a special citation. An article appears in the National May issue with a picture of three members, Mrs. Jessie Calico, Mrs. Betty Pollard and Mrs. D. J. Pauling, telling of all the activities, especially the fraternal projects, which the camp has been doing.

The local camp received a myrtle wood gavel and block which were handmade by students at the State school for the deaf, Salem, Ore. The wood is native to Oregon.

Velma Treadwell, past district deputy, and Frieda Evans, orator of the Twin Falls camp, both Twin Falls, were guests. The visitors gave brief talks concerning lodge projects.

An "invitation" was received from the Twin Falls camp to attend a hobo party to be held at the JOOP hall. Bailey also invited the group to attend a potluck dinner and carnival.

Mrs. Grace Rambo, secretary of the Joint Modern Woodmen-Royal Neighbor executive board, reported on the meeting giving a successful proceeds report on the luncheon booth at the fair. Grand honors were given to Mrs. Miles Weech and Mrs. Earl Tridlo as managers of the booth.

Articles for the bazaar, to be held Nov. 6 in a building south of the Perrine hotel, West Shoshone, were displayed and priced. Pro-tem officers were Lydia

Idaho State Grinds Out Touchdown in Closing Minutes to Nip Montana

POCATELLO, Oct. 31.—Idaho State's Bengals, sputtering offensively much of the afternoon, placed together a typical grinding march in the fourth quarter today and defeated Montana's Grizzlies 14-7. But the victory was earned by the defensive unit which once held Montana at the six-inch line and later at the 12-yard line. Idaho State took the opening kickoff and rolled for a touchdown in 18 plays. The score came on a three-yard run by Bud Hare who took a pitchout from quarterback Bill Shaw. Don Neves converted.

Pilots Strike Early, Blank Vikings 18-0

GLENN'S PERRY, Oct. 31.—Glenn's Perry romped to three touchdowns in the first half last night and went on to defeat the Valley Vikings 18-0.

After trading the ball several times, the Pilots took possession on their own 30, moved it to the 45 in two plays and Jim Schwager went off to kick the remaining distance to give the Pilots a 6-0 first quarter lead.

Don Helwich went up the middle for 25 yards early in the second quarter to make it 12-0. Valley moved the ball to the Glenn's Perry eight but the Pilots pushed them back to the 35 where they took over. Jim Blalock's 35-yard pass to Schwager, who added 30 more for the first score.

Nither team posed a serious threat during the second half.

Irish Trounce Navy 40-0 for Sixth Victory

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31.—Unbeaten Notre Dame, ranked No. 2 in the nation, rolled to its sixth straight victory today in a 40-0 romp over Navy that included three touchdowns passed by John Huie.

The score equaled Notre Dame's 1940 point in the middle series.

	N. Dame	Navy
First downs	33	17
Passing yards	218	151
Rushing yards	151	10-38
Passes intercepted	1-10	6-13
Punts	8-26	4-13
Yards penalized	42	81
Fumbles lost	0	1

the most lopsided in the 38-game series.

Jack Snow, Huie's favorite target, and his summer pitch-and-catch pal at Annapolis, Calif., grabbed two scoring passes. The fleet split and caught seven passes, tying Jim Kelly's Irish season record of 41 receptions. Coach Ara Parseghian's Irish shut out Roger Staubach, last year's All-America quarterback, who has been handicapped by an injured left heel. However, Staubach completed 19 of 36 for a Naval Academy record.

Huskies Use Fumble to Nip Trojans

MALTA, Oct. 31.—The Huskies turned a fumble into seven points yesterday and went on to a 7-0 victory over the Raft River Trojans in a hard-played defensive game on a very muddy field.

	Huskies	Trojans
First downs	18	10
Passing yards	123	256
Rushing yards	8-11	0-1
Passes intercepted	4-23	6-0
Punts	8-26	4-13
Yards penalized	35	41

Idaho State held the Trojans at bay for the first half, but the Trojans broke through in the fourth on a 60-yard drive with Devan Jones plunging over from the three. The point try was good but was called back on a penalty and the second attempt missed.

The Trojans threatened twice more but the Huskies held at the 10 and a last-ditch field goal attempt missed.

Oregon Upset By Stanford Field Goal

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 31.—Stanford dominated from the opening kickoff, but needed a 37-yard field goal with 45 seconds remaining to upset seventh-ranked Oregon, 10-8 today.

	Oregon	Stanford
First downs	21	5
Passing yards	173	48
Rushing yards	281	48
Passes intercepted	10-28	4-13
Punts	6-34.1	10-33
Fumbles lost	0	1
Yards penalized	92	1

got a big break when Dave Lewis punted 61 yards to the Oregon one.

Oregon was forced to punt out with 54 seconds left and Stanford took over on the Oregon 45. Lewis promptly passed 27 yards to Bob Blunt and left-footed Braden Beck kicked the decisive field goal.

Zeno-Led UCLA Nips Cal 25-21

BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 31.—Larry Zeno, UCLA's all-purpose quarterback, passed 30 yards for a touchdown to end Kurt Altenberg with slightly more than one minute left today, bringing the Bruins from behind to a 25-21 victory over California in a Pacific Athletic conference upset.

Bobcats Stop Broncs, Stay Undeclared

BURLEY, Oct. 30.—The undefeated Burley Bobcats put down two early Blackfoot threats and went on to claim a workmanlike 20-0 victory over the Broncs yesterday. But the win may have proved costly for Burley as fullback John Schorran was lost probably for the year with a shoulder separation in the second quarter.

Blackfoot opened the game by driving to the Burley 32-yard line before a pair of 15-yard penalties stopped them. Minutes later the Broncs again worked to the Burley 22 on passing but gave up the ball on downs.

That took most of the first quarter and Burley wrapped it up with a pair of touchdowns in the second period. Pat McNeal got the first one on a 21-yard end sweep and Vance Mathews converted. Minutes later Terry Jones hit Dave Toner, who outraced the last Blackfoot defender to complete 37-yard pass and run play. Mathews converted.

Lynn Rayne turned in the longest run of the day in the third period when he broke up the middle and went 61 yards. Midway through the fourth period Jones hit junior end Jeff Hanes with a 27-yard pass and Hanes carried a Blackfoot tackler with him for the last five yards and the touchdown.

Hepworth, Filer Drop Indians 20-6

FILER, Oct. 31.—Halfback Larry Hepworth turned loose some sparkling broken field running last night, setting up two touchdowns with loose spirits and leading the Filer Wildcats to a 20-6 victory over Brannan's Indians.

Hepworth got things started with a 37-yard gallop in the opening quarter that carried to the Indian 45-yard line. He then dived for the touchdown and Mike Touchette got the extra point.

Shoehorn consumed almost all the second period with a grinding drive which big George Frankle finally capped from two yards away. The kick was wide.

In the third quarter Hepworth sprinted 45 yards but he was ruled he stepped out of bounds at the five yard-line. Touchette got the touchdown on his second try from there.

Filer turned to the air for the final score. Quarterback Steve Sharp hit halfback Gordon Pedrow for 35 yards, a shoestring tackle keeping Pedrow from going the distance. But Sharp came back with the same pattern on the next play, this one covering 25 yards and the score. Touchette converted.

Shoehorn drove to the Filer 15-yard line late in the game but was stopped.

Quarterback Virgil Carter paced the Cougar win, passing for 101 yards and rushing for 113.

BYU, capitalizing on a 15-yard USU penalty, took an early lead, driving 87 yards in the first four plays of the game.

Carter passed eight yards to Bruce Smith for the touchdown. USU scored early in the second quarter after a 60-yard drive punctuated by passes. Grant Martinson, Burley, carried from eight yards out for the touchdown and Chris Pella kicked the extra point.

USU scored again in the second period when Ron Edwards passed 31 yards to Dave Clark. Pella kicked the extra point. The Cougars tied the game with two minutes left in the half by driving 80 yards to score. Carter took the ball into the end zone, then passed to Dennis Palmer for two extra points.

BYU scored twice more in the third period. One touchdown came on a 47-yard pass from Carter to Steven Ogden. The other was a 13-yard pass from Ogden to Dennis Palmer. Guy Hill kicked points after.

Trojans Roll 40-0 Over Bulldogs

KIMBERLY, Oct. 31.—The Wendell Trojans, paced by Dan Peterson and Larry Bay, handed the Kimberly Bulldogs their seventh loss yesterday, 40-0. Peterson and Bay scored two touchdowns apiece.

Peterson got his two in succession in the first quarter, one on a four-yard run around end and the other on a four-yard plunge. Randy Neffenger kicked both extra points.

Von Nebeker followed with 55 yards on an intercepted pass with Neffenger adding the conversion. Bob Schenk ended the first half scoring at 27-0 with another stolen pass for 30 yards.

Bay made his two tallies in the second half, the first on a six-yard run and the other, 16 yards around end. Neffenger booted the extra point on Bay's second and final touchdown.

VOTE NO

against creating a new state agency with power to issue unlimited revenue bonds WITHOUT A VOTE OF THE PEOPLE

It's a Wasteful Duplication—The Bureau of Reclamation and Individual farmers are developing irrigation projects as rapidly as can be justified.

It Can Retard Present Development—If the state were empowered to set aside unlimited amounts of water, it could halt land development by individual farmers who are currently putting 50,000 new irrigated acres per year into production.

Revenue Bonds DO Involve the Credit of the State—and CAN become a tax obligation! Idaho learned this fact the hard way once before—when revenue bonds for the Lewiston Normal School dormitory project went into default. The state's taxpayers had to pick up the tab. This one can involve many millions.

It's Premature—No city, county or agency of the State of California can take a drop of Idaho's water without Idaho's official permission or an act of Congress. Don't borrow trouble!

The Proposal Casts a Cloud on every existing water right in Idaho. Responsible water attorneys believe this Constitutional Amendment, if adopted, could open up all water rights to re-determination.

Look Before You Leap—into unnecessary debt—before you create another state agency—one with powers to spend unlimited amounts of money without a vote of the people.

South Viet Nam Agricultural Aid Termed More Vital Than Current Shooting War

By O. A. (GUS) KELKER, Times-News Feature Editor

BURLEY, Oct. 31—A native Idahoan is getting ready to go back to South Viet Nam to fight a good war in a country torn apart by a bad one.

He is Rex Otley, chief of the agricultural division of the foreign aid program in that country which is now much in the news of the world. The program he heads is the good war. The bad one, backed by communists, get practically all the headlines.

Even while endeavoring to carry on the good one, he is within hearing distance of the bad one—sometimes even closer.

Remember the baseball game in Saigon where Viet Cong bombs exploded, killing two and wounding several? Otley's wife and children missed sitting in those same stands only because they were at a fireside session of their church. They seldom missed the ballgame. This time they were lucky and stayed away.

Remember just a week later when a terrorist bomb exploded in a theater? It is the same theater the Otleys always attend. Something else came up that day and they didn't go. They were lucky again, as several were killed in that explosion and casualties numbered around 60.

At their home in Saigon, the couple and their children, sometimes right after night, can hear the guns in the distance as the guerrilla type warfare continues. Once, when the government was overthrown, the big guns were so close the windows in the home rattled.

In Burley this week Otley, getting ready to go back to Saigon, recalled, "I believe I slept better when the guns were close."

During his stay in this area he spoke before several organizations, including members of the Soroptimist club of Twin Falls at their charter night observance this week.

What kind of a country is South Viet Nam? It is a nation where the bulk of the South Vietnamese are friendly to Americans and to the efforts to improve their agriculture. Yet it is a place where guerrilla-type fighting—fighting people you seldom see—makes it hard to tell who the enemy is.

It is a country where the United States works cooperatively with the citizens and where the agricultural and economic war, in the long run, is really more important than the war with the guns.

The project of which Otley is the head numbers among its members 80 American agricultural experts as well as 40 Chinese technicians who work with them. Although headquarters are maintained at Saigon, he travels extensively.

Dear Mr. Otley, like traveling in a country where a bird or a tree might blot out more than just the view from the passersby?

"Lack of security hampers out work. There is no doubt about it," Otley said. He admitted that life is somewhat dangerous and pointed out that, because of this, all travel is by air.

He recalled that even commercial airliners have been fired upon.

"Because of this they come in extremely high and let down fast," he said, "and when they take off they point the nose to the sky and keep going up until they are high enough for safety."

Otley, his wife and four children have been in Burley for several weeks on leave from South Viet Nam. Every two years the family earns a three-month stay back in the States and this time Burley was headquarters in order that he would be close to home. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Otley, still reside on the family farm in the Elba area.

He went through the first eight grades of school at Malta, where he graduated. Interested in livestock and farm projects, he received the Union Pacific scholarship in beef for 4-H club work and was also state 4-H livestock champion in 1956.

Taking advantage of partial aid from the scholarship, he enrolled at the University of Idaho and spent the next two years in study. This was followed by a two-year mission for the LDS.

To Park or Not to Park; Downtown Fire Hydrant Is Source of Much Confusion

Charles Allen, Twin Falls business manager, is confused. The confusion has to do with the future of the city, with the coming winter or with anything of a relatively simple matter, that of parking where the meters are located.

The place is question is near this downtown business. The "thing" in question is a meter which permits parking for 10 minutes or so for a penny.

One thing in connection with the placement of the meter in question is that it is just about three feet away from a nice, red fireplug.

Strangely enough, there is no city law which states just how close you can park an auto to a fireplug.

A check with the city attorney revealed this lack of a city ordinance governing the same, but, he added, the state has a law which rules out parking within 15 feet of a fireplug. Because the city has no law, and the state does have one, then the city is bound by the state law.

Simple—easy—right? Simple with the exception that for a penny—the 10th part of a thin dime—you can park closer to the plug than the law allows.

This is where Charles Allen, the businessman, is confused.

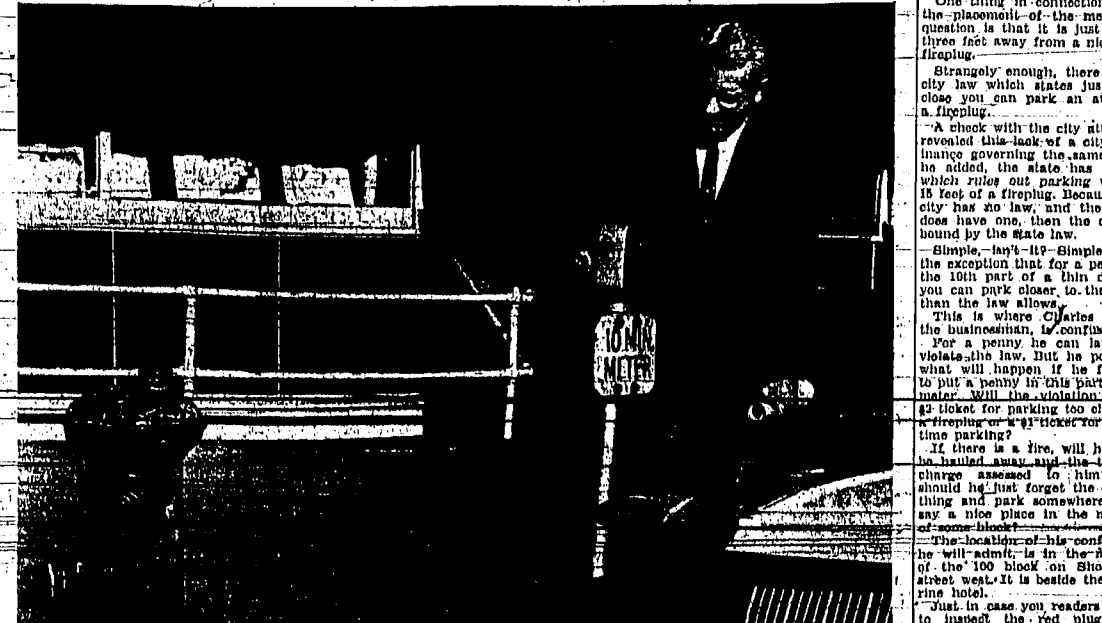

For a penny he can lawfully violate the law. But he ponders what will happen if he forgets to put a penny in this particular meter. Will the violation be a $2 ticket for parking too close to a fireplug or a $1 ticket for over time parking?

If there is a fire, will his car be hauled away, and the loss of the car assessed to him? Or should he just forget the entire thing and park somewhere else, say a nice place in the middle of some block?

The confusion of his confusion, he will admit, is in the middle of the 100 block on Shoshone street west. It is beside the Perkins hotel.

Just in case you readers want to inspect the red plug, the parking place and the penny meter more closely, Allen thought the location should be thrown in just as sort of a bonus.

Meanwhile, down at the police station....

TWIN FALLS BUSINESSMAN Charles Allen puts a penny into a parking meter that is located in such a manner that, for that penny, a possible fine for parking too close to a fireplug will be overlooked. Adopted laws require parking no closer than 15 feet from the plug. The meter is located about three feet from the red object. The situation is further complicated because the city has no law defining just how close a car may park from a fireplug. The state has such a law, which further confuses Allen as he ponders the penny to park in the spot. (Times-News photo)

Young Air Force Captain Accepted for Study at New Aerospace School

An air force pilot who "adopted" Twin Falls as his second home after his marriage in 1962 to a local girl, soon will be flying high, even as jet pilots do.

He is Capt. Francis Bellanne, now assigned to the air battle center in the Pentagon, Washington, D. C. At a training facility in large scale computer war gaming, his wife is the former Karen Ann Stoddard, a daughter of Mrs. Merle Stoddard, 244 Walnut street. The couple was married here in June, 1962.

Information received locally from the air force discloses that Captain Bellanne has been tabbed for the USAF aerospace research pilot school, which is slated to start just after Christmas. The couple, and infant son, expect to visit in Twin Falls prior to that time.

The research pilot school, air force regulations point out, has been established to train selected officers to monitor or perform flight tests of research, experimental, or production type aerospace vehicles. These tests are made to determine flight characteristics, performance, stability, and functional utility and to obtain technical information on serviceability and functioning of installed equipment and component parts.

Requirements for eligibility in the aerospace program reads like a university flight career coming around for the second time. Among such requirements are those which state that the pilot must possess a bachelor's degree in engineering, physical sciences or mathematics; be serving on active duty as a pilot on flying status; have a minimum of 500 hours as pilot or instructor in (1) jet bomber or transport aircraft, (2) supersonic fighter craft, (3) helicopters or (4) a combination of these requirements.

Looking back into the career of Captain Bellanne reveals that except for the determination of his late father to come to Alhambra from their native Belgium, he never would have had the chance to be a pilot in the first place.

The captain was born Oct. 22, 1934, in LaLauverie, Belgium. His father had been active in the allied underground setup during World War II. Because he felt that his wife and the safety of his family might be jeopardized, he remained in Europe, and for other reasons, the move was made to the United States in 1948. The captain-to-be was 14 years old at the time.

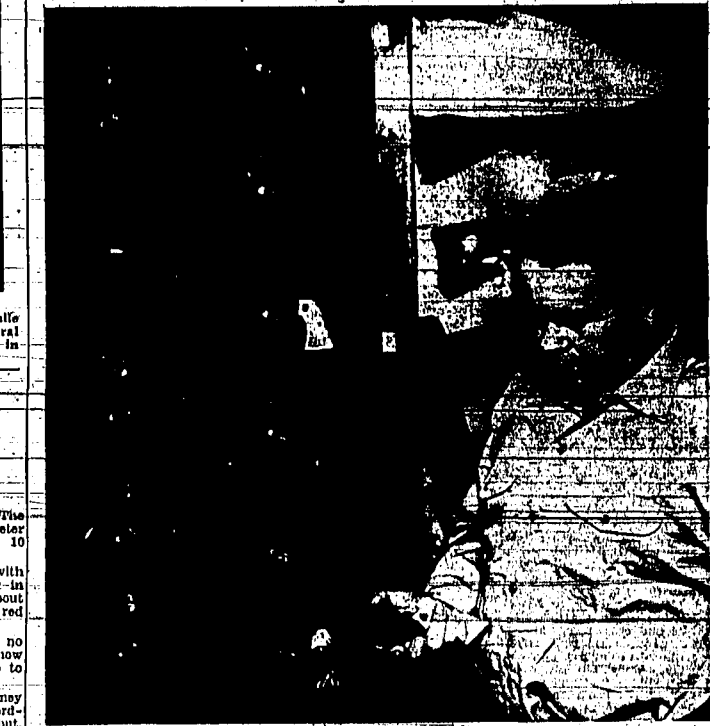

The father established a tailoring business in Long Beach, Long Island, N. Y. He died in 1960, when they came to the U. S. no members of the family spoke English. Now Captain Bellanne speaks fluently in three languages.

This pilot was commissioned in June, 1955. In 1961 he was assigned through the air force institute of technology, to attend the university of Utah to obtain his masters degree in mathematics. His B.S. degree had been granted at Manhattan college, New York City, in 1955 prior to his being commissioned. At the University of Utah he was selected for membership to the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

EXAMINING one of his Colt single action revolvers is Charles Allen, Salmon tract farmer who has compiled a complete collection of the standard model of the famed handgun which won the West. An interest in Winchester rifles started Allen on the road to collecting guns and he has several partial collections. He lacks just a few rifles to complete the Winchester collection. (Times-News photo)

Winchester Interest Led To Colt Revolver Hobby

TWIN FALLS, Oct. 31—Some 600 years ago, the Winchester rifle was the subject of an entire Times-News Sunday feature.

As gun trading is quite an art and often something to boot is needed in the art of trading, Allen was the subject of a feature in a trade. As a result, Allen now has a complete collection of Colt single action revolvers.

These are the frontier peace-maker models used in taming the western frontier.

There were several special models that were made during the time the Colt revolver was the law of the land. Allen was the last to sleep on a man's hip, but he had only the standard models produced by Colt.

The special models would include a six shooter with a long barrel.

The revolvers are all in good working condition. Not all of them were the result of a rifle trade, but in gun swapping one never knows what gun will turn the trick to complete a trade or a sale.

Does operator of Salmon tract farm in the vicinity of Momma's Past and Vine have a long been a hobby of his.

He has lost fired most of the guns in his collection and spends countless hours restoring them to original form and shape. A good portion of his workshop is devoted to the making of ammunition for his guns and he has a rack full of books devoted to guns and their preservation.

He points out that anytime a rare gun comes along he tries to acquire it. He has a few more already, but he might come in handy at a later date to complete a trade.

His pride and joy is his extensive Winchester collection and he has several short collections of other rifles and guns. His original goal was to complete his Winchester collection, but along the way and ahead of that goal he has come to the Colt revolver collection.

It is modest, but close inspection reveals that he is an artist at restoring guns to their original shape.

He has hopes of completing his Winchester array, but one never knows. He may finish another collection before this is accomplished. In gun trading you never know what will come along and when.

ARTHUR E. GROVE

In 1938 he and his wife, the former Vivian M. Sheppard, started their search for a lumber business of their own. Nothing seemed to appeal to them until one day they drove to Paul and were impressed with the Williams Building Supply Company, and their home business, changing the name to the Minidoka Lumber and Farm Supply.

About eight years later they enlarged the store and took on a line of Gamble's merchandise. Taking a jump from a wage earner to running a business for himself was termed as an important step in his life.

"But the most important thing that ever happened to me was when I married my wife," he smilingly added. "We have been married for about 26 years, which have been very happy ones, and without her, help I would never have reached the point of where we are today."

"We both like to do many of the same things, bowling, hunting, fishing, dancing, and I guess working. The only thing she would never do with me was flying, so I gave that up 15 years ago."

Incidentally, the attractive private secretary and bookkeeper for the business is Mrs. Grove. They have a daughter, Mrs. Rodney Allen, Paul, and a grandchild.

Grove also has the hobby of building boats for himself. He has built a 14-foot boat and is now in the process of completing a 20-foot cabin cruiser. They have built a brick home west of town where Grove enjoys his leisure hours gardening, a talent he learned from his mother. He has served as zone chair-

Epelson, the national honorary mathematics fraternity.
During his air force career he has served as bomb commander, instructor pilot, assistant flight commander, and also was 1948 bombing champion. He received the air force commendation medal in 1951.
He has accumulated over 1,800 flying hours with more than 1,000 hours in the "Century" fighter jets, such as the F-100 and the F-101.
True course to which he has been assigned will take one year to complete. The first six months will be test pilot training and the balance of the time will be devoted to training in space aircraft.
The objective, according to the air force announcement, is to create a pool of pilots trained for space exploration who, in the meantime, will participate in active research flying.
Aside from flying in the states, Captain Bellme has also been assigned overseas. He has flown F-100 fighter jets while serving in France and Germany.

North, Oct. 31 - Cheryl Becker, Duhl, has been selected one of five princesses who will compete for honors of queen of the first annual "Autumn Harvest carnival," presented Saturday by the associated men students at Hattie Pacific college.

To The Voters of Twin Falls County, Idaho:

We, the undersigned attorneys, believe that the Probate Judge of this County should be an attorney. The office of Probate Judge handles a large volume of legal business, consisting of such matters as probate of estates, guardianships, adoptions, mental hearings, civil and criminal actions, and juvenile proceedings. Legal training and experience are essential qualifications of a Judge processing such matters in the large volume that is handled by the Probate Judge's office in Twin Falls County. We believe that Zoe Ann Warberg-Schaub is well qualified and has efficiently performed the duties of this office. We recommend that she be retained in office as Probate Judge of Twin Falls County.

"We Americans understand freedom. We have earned it, lived for it, and died for it. This nation and its people are freedom's model in a searching world. We can be freedom's missionaries in a doubting world. But first we must renew freedom's vision in our own hearts and in our own homes.

It is the cause of Republicanism to resist concentrations of power, private or public, which enforce conformity and inflict despotism.

It is the cause of Republicanism to insure that power remains in the hands of the people.

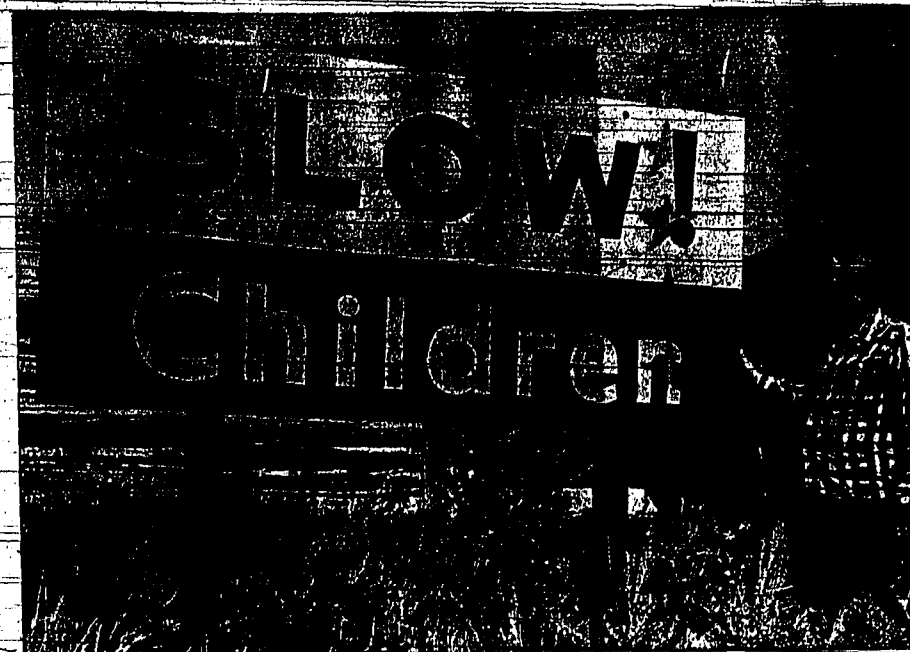

It is the cause of Republicanism to remind ourselves and the world that only the strong can remain free — that only the strong can keep the peace!

I speak in America proud of its past, proud of its ways, proud of its dreams, and determined actively to proclaim them.

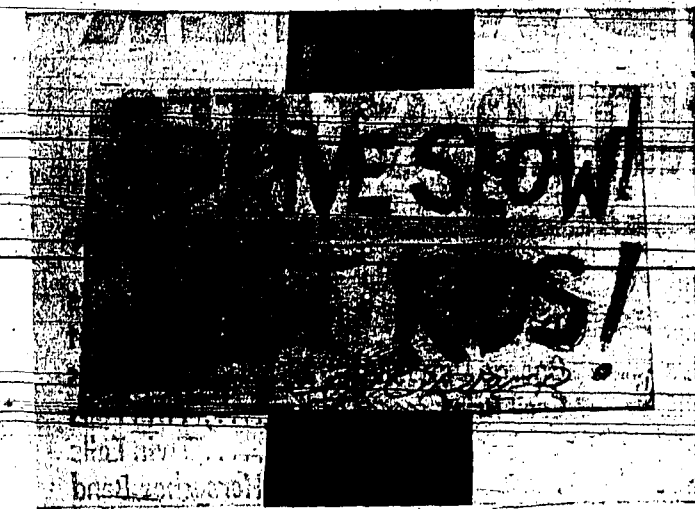

We must assure a society here which, while never abandoning the needy or forsaking the helpless, nurtures incentives and opportunities for the creative and the productive."

—BARRY M. GOLDWATER

Christian Job Training Is PTA Topic

Training for a Christian vocation was the topic presented by the Rev. C. C. Rathbun at the October meeting of the Memorial Lutheran PTA.

He stated that parenthood is a God-given vocation for which parents should train themselves. He urged the group to support those in church and school who seek to "train" their children. He added that parents should encourage their children to enter church work either as teachers or pastors.

Fred Plankey, attorney for the Committee of 25, spoke on some frequently-asked questions about the proposed junior college. He urged all those present to vote for this issue in the Nov. 3 election.

It was reported by George Conrad that the school now has four Cub Scout dens and that more den mothers are needed. Mrs. Gail Malberg is a new den leader.

Mrs. C. V. Illovey's sixth grade room received the attendance trophy.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Kenneth Barth, Mrs. Carl Scheele, Mrs. Jack Chapple and Mrs. Paul Smith.

John McCormack Calls Harding "People's" Man

A deep personal interest in the problem of each Idahoan and a zest for hard work to solve them are two reasons why Congressman Ralph Harding has been described by House Speaker John McCormack as "the people's Congressman."

No call for help that comes to his office goes unheeded.

The businessman who is at a loss on the loan opportunities available to him through the Small Business Administration calls Harding's office and gets an immediate answer.

The serviceman who has encountered transportation difficulties in returning to his base and will shortly be AWOL finds that a telephone call to Washington will give him the few extra hours he needs.

The college student seeking the experience of a summer working in the nation's capital writes for employment help. He finds the Congressman will contact federal agencies in his behalf.

The citizen who is close of retirement and wonders what Social Security benefits will be available to him and his wife receives a thorough report when he writes Ralph Harding.

Farmers Helped

The farmer who is considering an expansion of his operation knows that a letter to his Representative, who serves on the House Agriculture Committee, will bring back to him some ready advice on helpful federal programs.

Young families who take their children and travel to Washington during the summer to tour the national monuments find a ready guide when they call at the office of Congressman Harding.

Whenever the Congressman's schedule will permit, he will not let them leave the city without joining him for the famous bean soup in the restaurant of the House of Representatives.

Those who do not have the opportunity to travel to Washington to confer with their spokesman in the Congress find that he arranges his schedule to take him where they are whenever the House of Representatives is not in session.

The courthouse tour has become a regular practice, too, of the youthful, dynamic Representative.

Each fall during the four years he has served in the House he has arranged for a day in each county seat and many other smaller cities where constituents can bring their problems directly to him.

Civic leaders, high school students, college professors, veterans—all find him responsive to their invitations for speaking engagements whenever his congressional duties do not interfere.

Those who follow his fast pace and devotion to his work get his answer when they ask him what it's like to be a Congressman.

"I find the life hectic, challenging and exciting. The days are long, the work is hard, but the rewards are great."

"The days . . . long . . . the rewards great."

HARDING GETS ENDORSEMENTS OF PRESIDENTS

"The people of the Second District picked an outstanding Congressman . . . his work leaves no doubt as to his qualifications for re-election."

—LYNDON B. JOHNSON

"The election of Ralph Harding to the Congress of the United States is evidence of what a young American with determination and courage can accomplish."

—JOHN F. KENNEDY

"He has been a great Congressman and a good Congressman. Don't let the people forget him. It will mean a terrible loss if they do . . . Harding is voting for what is good for the country."

—HARRY S. TRUMAN

Congressman Harding has a close working relationship with President Lyndon Johnson. The President responds readily to his requests for assistance on Idaho problems.

Harding's Contacts Valuable To Idaho's Future Progress

Capitol Hill storylines like to tell about new members of Congress who get lost in the tortuous mazes of House office buildings while on the way to vote.

Humorous as the stories on these "lost" lawmakers may be, they vividly illustrate that a member to be effective in serving his constituents must know his way around Washington.

That's what a great speaker of the House of Representatives, Champ Clark, was talking about when he gave this advice to states on the selection of their Congressmen.

"The best rule . . . is for a legislator to know his way around the place. There is no such thing as a legislator who is not a man who gradually rises to his position and succeeds in it. His wide acquaintance with members helps amazingly in doing things."

"A man has to learn to be a Representative just as he must learn to be a blacksmith, a carpenter, a farmer, an engineer, a lawyer or a doctor."

Ralph Harding now has four years of valuable experience in Washington. He knows his way around the town and the Capitol.

When constituents come to him for help, he knows practically the people in high places in the Congress, the Cabinet and the White House who can give them the assistance they need.

The committee chairmen are receptive to his requests for consideration of legislation they need.

His colleagues with whom he has worked on numerous projects like and respect him. They work cooperatively with him on projects for the Gem State.

At his invitation many influential members of the Congress and the executive branch of government have traveled to Idaho to observe first hand some of the problems the Congress wanted to bring directly to their attention.

Ralph Harding has learned his job well!

As the late President John Kennedy observed of Congressman Harding's legislative career, "He has demonstrated ability and adeptness in serving his state and the nation that are usually attained only after many years of service in the Congress."

Idaho needs his experience, contacts and seniority serving them in Washington.

Form Boy to Congressman

Few young men at 23 have provided so many accomplishments in such a short life as has Ralph Harding.

Born on a farm in Malad, Idaho, the oldest of seven children, to him it was second nature to feed sugar beets, to haul hay, to pick potatoes.

His first interest in government service was kindled by a university political science professor.

Standing at 23, didn't wait to finish college before seeking a seat in the State Legislature.

While continuing to carry a full course at the university, maintaining a straight "A" average, and selling Puller brushes on the side, he drove 200 miles every weekend to campaign for the State Legislature against a highly expected candidate.

Despite this unexpected victory by a two-to-one margin, the odds were even greater against his winning a seat in the House of Representatives.

However, by waging a vigorous and hard fought campaign for the House seat he ran some 27,000 votes ahead of the presidential candidate of his party in the Second District to become at 21 the youngest member of the 87th Congress.

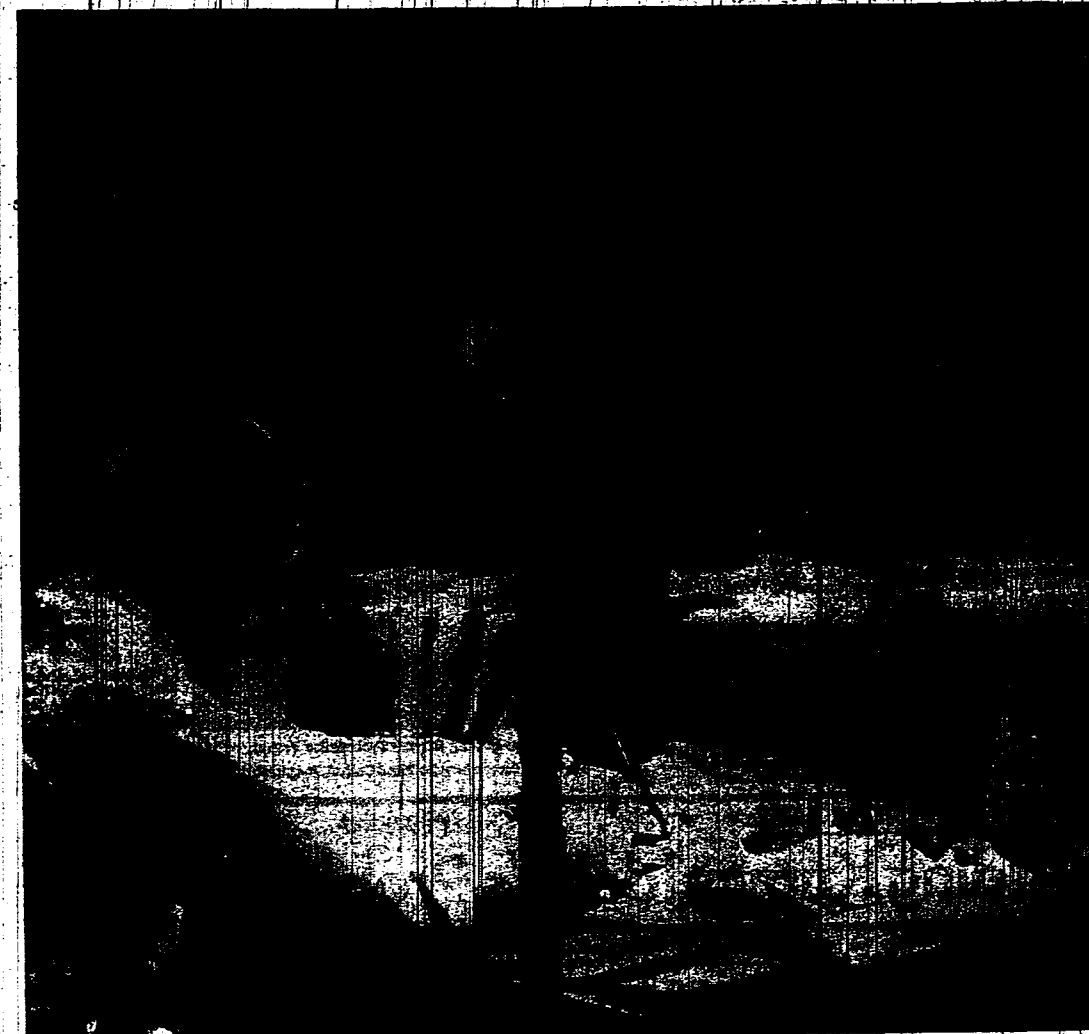

The same unlimited energy he demonstrates in politics has also carried him to unusual achievement in the business world. When elected to Congress, he was working as comptroller of a multi-million dollar potato firm in eastern Idaho.

To those miles this industrious

Idahoan can add military service in the Korean War, a mission for his church and community participation in such organizations as the American Legion, the Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club.

Ralph Harding is married to Wills Conrad, a former school teacher from Iona, Idaho. They have four children—Cherie, 8; Charles, 4; John, 6 months; Ralph David, 2.

RALPH HARDING WORKS FOR IDAHO...

THE HARDING RECORD

OUR CHOICE--RALPH HARDING

Ralph Harding's drive for reelection to Congress from Idaho's Second District calls to mind some language currently in use by a couple of football coaches we know. "You got to have the horses," is what they like to say.

But what they mean, of course, is that a team with bigger, faster players is more likely to win than a team with younger, less experienced players. A team that has the better horses stands a better chance to put together a winning season.

It strikes us that Ralph Harding, in the coach's terms, is the best horse for Idaho and the Second District. He carries easily the experience of four, testing years in Washington. He commands the respect of his colleagues and high Washington officials. He already is a member of a winning team, the big Democratic majority in the House and Senate. He gets things done for Idaho and his district.

Mr. Harding is the first Congressman from his district ever to serve on the House Agriculture Committee. He works on four subcommittees whose scope is vital to all of Idaho: Wheat, Forests, Domestic Marketing, and Foreign Agricultural Operations. His work is more than enough to show how productive his work is on the Agriculture Committee. During the four years he has held this important post, Idaho's sugar beet acreage has increased and the state's sugar beet production has almost doubled.

Of Mr. Harding, President Johnson himself says, "The people of the Second District picked an outstanding Congressman. His work leaves no doubt as to his qualifications for re-election."

Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma, majority leader of the House, has seen many a man come to the Congress. He says, "None has more quickly established a reputation for hard work, competence, and integrity than has Congressman Harding." The public polling polls now show, in the closing weeks of this campaign, that voters prefer the big Democratic majorities in the House and Senate and the Democratic ticket led by President Johnson and Senator Humphrey. Mr. Harding is a respected, influential member of this team.

In our judgment, there is no doubt. Ralph Harding is the best horse for Idaho and the Second District. His constituents should vote to keep him in the Congress. And the bigger his margin, the better.

CAPITOL HILL VISITOR SAYS:

Harding Knows Idaho's Problems

By Richard B. Bingham

Recently I visited in Washington, D. C., with United States Congressman Ralph Harding.

I went to his office early Tuesday morning (February 5), introduced myself, and announced my intention of seeing the Congressman.

Mr. Harding greeted me in his office, and we began to talk. We talked for a few minutes about me. The Congressman said that he had been acquainted with my father during his work at American Potato.

I told Mr. Harding that I had been in Williamsburg, Virginia, for a debate meet, and he talked of the wonderfully powerful influence of Maine Capellen.

Having just debated a topic of international consequences, I asked Representative Harding if he were on any committee dealing with trade or foreign affairs.

Mr. Harding replied that, while he was actively interested in foreign affairs, he felt that he was of more use to the state of Idaho serving as he is, on the committee for agriculture.

We talked of potato controls. Mr. Harding expressed a desire to sustain the production advantage of Idaho. That advantage, he remarked, is being endangered by the increasing competition of other Russian producing areas. Congressman Harding is well aware of the unpopularity of control proposals, which must always impose some limitations on individual freedoms.

On one hand, Mr. Harding claimed there is need to protect the potato industry of Idaho; on the other hand there is need to defend the rights of potato producers. Mr. Harding seeks a proposal which will somehow reconcile the two apparently contradictory interests.

Ralph Harding's Four Years in the House Result in Impressive Gains for Gem State

Reclamation Achievements Outstanding

Congressman Ralph Harding, first elected to the House of Representatives in 1960, works hard and long hours to serve the people of Idaho and his district.

His course, competence, and experience as the Second District's first Democratic Congressman in 24 years are writing a long list of solid achievements for the Gem State.

Two of Idaho's most pressing needs are reclamation and flood control. In these areas, Congressman Harding has a record of high success.

In fiscal 1964 alone, $10-million was appropriated for reclamation and flood control projects in Idaho.

During his first two terms in the Congress, the $32-million Lower-Teton and $7-million Ririe projects were approved.

These are the first major water projects for Idaho's Second District since the Palisades project was authorized more than 15 years ago.

Congressman Harding also worked successfully to make Idaho a full partner in the use of power generated by Idaho water. His work contributed to the decision of Interior Secretary Udall to include southern Idaho in the Bonneville Power marketing area.

For the first time in Second District history Idaho farmers have a spokesman.

And from his work on the House Agriculture Committee and his direct access to Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman have come solid benefits.

Freeman Agrees

Secretary Freeman agreed to the young Idaho lawmaker's request in behalf of the pinto bean industry. Their product thereby became eligible for USDA purchases in school lunch and welfare programs.

This, of course, meant more dollars in the pockets of pinto bean farmers in the Gem State.

Congressman Harding has also worked hard for Idaho sugar beet growers. During his four years on the House Agriculture Committee, sugar beet production in the state has nearly doubled.

This year Congressman Harding was able to announce Department of Agriculture approval of an additional sugar beet allotment of 8,000 acres.

The Second District Representative refused to compromise the interest of Idaho sugar beet growers in the conflict which developed between the growers and the beet processors.

He, along with Senator Frank Church, persuaded Defense officials to assign to the Idaho Air Base an RF-4C tactical reconnaissance wing to replace the B-7 bombers.

The defense installations located in Idaho, particularly Mountain Home Air Force Base and the National Reactor Testing Station, make significant contributions to the economy of the state.

Congressman Harding recognizes that these installations mean more jobs for our people and a boost for the economy generally. He has fought to assure that Idaho shares fully in the nation's expenditures for defense purposes.

The announcement that B-7s at Mountain Home Air Force would be phased out in early 1966 brought quick action from Ralph Harding.

Farmers Have Spokesman

Idahoan Serves on Agriculture Committee

In this important post where decisions can mean prompt help for Idaho's number one industry—agriculture—Congressman Harding has worked tirelessly in behalf of Gem State farmers.

For the first time in Second District history Idaho farmers have a spokesman.

And from his work on the House Agriculture Committee and his direct access to Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman have come solid benefits.

during the closing days of this past session of the Congress.

He stood firmly and successfully in the House Agriculture Committee against an extension of the foreign portion of the Sugar Act. He insisted that cane growers permit sugar beet growers to market their surplus production from last year as well as this year's crop.

One of his first legislative actions next year will be the introduction of a new sugar bill drafted to deal with the sugar problems which remained unresolved in the past session of the Congress.

Also prominently on the agenda will be the bill he introduced in October. It would require that fresh potatoes, purchased or sold to interstate commerce be labeled to identify the state in which they were grown.

Too often Congressman Harding has been object-afire of the country benefiting unfairly from the reputation of the Idaho potato.

Congressman Harding is in a position to continue to do something about these problems. He knows the agricultural needs of the farmers of the Gem State.

Gem State Has Strong Voice In High Democratic Circles

Congressman Ralph Harding's friendly manner and forceful personality have won the respect and admiration of his Democratic and Republican colleagues in the House of Representatives.

Of special significance to Idaho is the position accorded him this year by the Democrats. For their convention in Atlanta they put the vigorous young Idaho lawmaker on the Democratic National Platform Committee.

Congressman Harding promptly demonstrated that he had not come to look on. He took an active part in the hearings and platform reports.

The Democratic Committee accepted a platform amendment proposed by Congressman Harding. It pledged the continued support of the Democratic Party to multipurpose projects providing flood control, irrigation and reclamation, power generation, fish and wildlife enhancement and recreational benefits.

The Democratic Committee members watched with respect his careful and intelligent questioning of farm witnesses called to appear before them.

The Second District Congressman was also selected by his Democratic colleagues to participate, along with Senator Hubert Humphrey, Senator Birch Bayh and theatrical stars in a Young Citizens for Johnson rally before an audience of 18,000.

Viewers in Idaho saw their Congressman introduced by Governor Edward T. Bretnorth of Kansas, one of the nation's two youngest senators, in the television audience.

Congressman Harding's Democratic colleagues have recorded him still another important position of responsibility. He serves as a member of the Democratic National Congressional Committee on Capitol Hill.

The import of these new, national responsibilities for Congressman Harding is clear.

Idaho now has a strong voice in Washington. Idaho is heard by the House and Senate Democratic leaders and by the White House.

Congressman Ralph Harding speaks well for the Gem State.
